

HOW TO WASH EMBROIDERED LINENS.

To wash embroidered linens so as not to fade the colors, fill a tub half full of warm water, to which add a little ivory soap, wash each piece through the suds carefully, rinse in blue water to which a little thin starch is added. Hang on the line to dry. Iron on the wrong side, pressing down heavily to bring out the stitches, thus restoring their original beauty.

TEXAS LADIES SPEAK THE TRUTH.

De Leon, Tex., writes: I am a widow, and can strongly recommend Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine, I have saved my life 6 years ago, when I was down with Liver Complaint and Kidney Disease. I think it is a far better medicine than that made by "Zellin" and "Black Draught."

Gestation. During the period of gestation the tension upon the muscles and ligaments of the womb is greatly increased and the blood vessels are taxed to their utmost. If there is any tendency to weakness or pain, we recommend frequent warm injections of our Mexican Female Remedy and two or three doses, every day, of Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine. This treatment will strengthen the ligaments, will assist in holding the uterus in place, lessen pain, make the uterus more pliable and elastic, and prepare the organs for the final effort. It also lessens the danger of death to child and mother, and for the sake of the child, and the mother, and the family, and the community, and with ordinary prudence guarantees a rapid recovery.

Dr. M. A. Simmons. Celeste, Tex., says: Dr. M. A. Simmons Liver Medicine is the best in the world for Biliousness, Indigestion and Torpid Liver. Have used it 10 years, and recommend it to my friends, and they all praise it. I think there is as much difference as between day and night.

Paleness. Anemia is a condition often called "pale color of blood" from deficiency of the red corpuscles which give to this fluid its characteristic color. It arises from insufficiency of assimilation of the proper materials of food to replenish the blood, as in chlorotic girls. It may occur in persons who have long suffered with hemorrhoids, or in women from repeated discharges of blood from the uterus. The lips and tongue lose their natural red color and become white and the face looks like wax.

The most efficient remedy for this condition is Dr. Simmons Squaw Vine Wine. The improvement produced by its use is frequently almost magical; an enfeebled heart becomes strong and equable in its action, digestion improves, the lips and cheeks lose their pallor, and the eye becomes bright and the step elastic.

ELEVEN MEN

Arrested Charged With Criminally Assaulting a Young Covington Bride.

Threats of Lynching Became so General. That It Was Deemed Advisable to Remove the Men—The Grand Jury Will Act on the Case October 19.

NEWPORT, Ky., Oct. 8.—Mrs. Thomas Gleason, of Covington, a bride of but a few weeks, was dragged from her husband, while they were walking on the Alexandria pike, back of this city, near George Kellar's farm, about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night, and assaulted by 11 men.

George Greer and "Dad" Meiner were arrested by Sergt. Reilly shortly after the assault, and Thursday morning Officer Matthews brought in Matt Meiner, John Meyer, Dick Bushmiller and Cooper Mitler, and Officer Stemler arrested "Red" Bushmiller and Edward Hindling.

All live in Newport. Mrs. Gleason and husband Wednesday night said they could positively identify "Dad" Meiner and George Greer as the two men who first halted them on the pike.

As the news of the terrible deed spread a crowd began to collect at the Newport court house Thursday morning.

It became necessary for Sheriff Plummer to clear the corridors of the courthouse at 9:30 a. m.

Mrs. Gleason said Thursday that 12 men were about her in the field, but that she fainted after she had been repeatedly assaulted.

The men accused are between the ages of 23 and 31 years.

Mrs. Gleason is only 17 years old. Judge Bennett's courtroom was packed almost to suffocation during the preliminary hearing. Mrs. Gleason was the first witness. She detailed the story related above. When she pointed out Meiner as the man who had the revolver he leaped to his feet and shouted that he could prove his innocence. He said it was another man whom he named who drew the revolver. "How do you know?" he was asked. He answered that that was what some of the men had told him.

Meiner made contradictory statements in his testimony. First, he said he was out in town to get a keg of beer at the time the assault took place. Later he admitted that he had been out the Alexandria pike. He said he saw a lot of men out there, but he was not one of the crowd. Gleason said the man who drew the revolver wore a slouch hat. Meiner had on a derby when arrested. Meiner said he recognized Greer and Bushmiller in the crowd out the pike.

Judge Helm, Commonwealth Attorney Lockhart, Sheriff Plummer and County Judge Bennett held a conference at 1 p. m. Thursday, and it was decided not to have a special grand jury, but await the one at Alexandria, which convenes October 19.

Three p. m. over the C. & O. was the time and route decided upon to take the accused to Maysville.

During the preliminary trial Mrs. Gleason was given a test to identify the men charged with the crime.

The prisoners were placed in various parts of the courtroom in the crowd, and in each instance Mrs. Gleason positively identified the prisoners.

Greer testified that he was with Meiner going out the pike, but did not see the couple.

George Youtsey, keeper of the tollgate, and Ed Huber testified to seeing Greer and Meiner passing the tollgate. Greer and Meiner told conflicting stories in their testimony.

All the other prisoners denied having been out the pike.

After hearing all the evidence Judge Bennett announced that he would bind "Dad" Meiner and George Greer over to the grand jury in $5,000 each and the other eight over $3,000 each. But he made a more careful examination of the statutes, and then held all of the men to the grand jury without bond. Greer was drunk, and said he was ready for trial at once.

A few minutes after the prisoners were bound over Circuit Judge Helm, into whose care they passed, stated that he would send all of them to the Maysville jail Thursday afternoon to avoid the possibility of a lynching. Judge Helm will impanel a special grand jury at once.

The community is terribly wrought up over the affair and threats of lynching the miscreants are freely made. The excitement is far more intense than that caused by the finding of the body of headless Pearl Bryan over a year ago. It can hardly be conceived that a crime so heinous could be perpetrated in an enlightened community.

The men charged with the crime are mostly of bad character and that quick justice will be meted out to them is assured by the authorities. The penalty for criminal assault in this state is death.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 8.—Sheriff Plummer and posse arrived in this city with the ten prisoners at 5:25 p. m. When the train arrived here nearly 500 people were awaiting it at Market street, and here there was intense excitement. Several of the crowd wanted to handle the men roughly, and there were cries of "Let's take them." They were landed in jail safely, however.

There was no undue excitement here after the prisoners had been locked up. Little knots of people congregated on the streets and discussed the affair, but there was no signs of an outbreak.

Death of Egbert Starr. New York, Oct. 8.—Egbert Starr, a resident of this city for over sixty years and one of the most prominent merchants of three decades ago, died at his home Thursday, aged 84 years. His gifts to Middlebury college are estimated to have amounted to $100,000.

Weyler Will Be Recalled. MADRID, Oct. 8.—It is semi-officially announced Thursday that Capt. Gen. Weyler will be recalled from Cuba this month, and that it is probable the Cortes will be dissolved in December, and a new parliament convoked in March.

THE LAST OF COBB'S ISLAND.

The Sea Has Nearly Destroyed a Beloved Resort on the Virginia Coast.

Slowly but surely the sea is sweeping Cobb's island from the map of Virginia. Only a pitiful little sand spit remains, with a few straggling houses fighting with the fickle sand. Uncle Nathan Cobb, the sturdy noble Roman of the beach, has moved his last outhouse off, and only goes down every day or so to look for his heart that he has lost somewhere on that beautiful beach, and then comes wandering back with the tide, glancing over his shoulder through eyes that are wet with the dew of a great love.

They had the sale of all that is left of the hotel property down at the landing a few days ago and they sold for a trifle to white and black the beds that have brought sleep to thousands of this old world's tired travelers who from far-off steaming cities have come to its shining shores to breathe the sweet breath of the sea and feel the pulse of its mighty tides. Uncle Nathan only stopped a moment at the sale as he came up the creek from his day's pilgrimage to the island. As his eye caught the sight of the auctioneer crying off a piece of furniture and the joking jostling crowd he turned and said, with a voice full of pathos: "Well, it looks like the old island's gone this time. We can look on and long and hope, but the old ocean is unconquerable. She has her way. Ah! man, but it's hard for me." His eyes filled with tears and he pushed his little boat on up the creek to get away from the sound of the auctioneer's voice.

Uncle Nathan is not alone in his great sorrow. The hearts of thousands who love nature and who with him have felt the thrill of her close touch on those white sands and beautiful waters mourn their great loss also. They will dream of its cool breezes, its solemn marshes, its sands, its tides, its birds and fish, and wake in the world's fevered life with a sigh and tears at the realization of their loss. The earth is poorer for the ruin of that bit of sand.

—Cape Charles Light.

DEEP HOLES IN THE OCEAN.

They Are Not Found in the Center But Always Near Land.

The deepest spots so far sounded in the ocean were found a year or two ago by the surveying ship Penguin while returning from the Tonga group to New Zealand. In three places a depth exceeding 5,000 fathoms was found. Till these soundings were made the deepest water found was to the northeast of Japan, where in 1874 the United States steamer Tuscarora obtained a cast of 4,555 fathoms.

The Penguin's soundings are 5,022, 5,147 and 5,153 fathoms. The increase is therefore 500 fathoms, or 3,000 feet. The soundings are separated from one another by water much less deep, and the holes may not be connected. The distance from the two extreme soundings is 450 miles. Specimens of the bottom were recovered from the two deeper soundings, and prove to be the usual red clay found in all the deepest parts of the ocean.

These soundings afford additional evidence of the observed fact that the deepest holes are not in the centers of the ocean, but are near land, as two of them are within 100 miles of islands of the Kermadec group, and the other not far from a shoal.

Doubtless deeper depressions in the bed of the sea are yet to be found, but the fact that this sounding of 30,930 feet shows that the ocean contains depressions below the surface greater than the elevation of the highest known mountains is worthy of record.

Babylon's Hanging Gardens. The hanging gardens of Babylon were terraced on columns. The gardens were 400 feet square and over 400 feet high. The ascent from terrace to terrace was by flights of marble steps, and on the highest was a large reservoir.

A Home-Grown Experience.

A man went into an icehouse to cool off. An abrupt and impetuous hired man closed and locked the door and went away. The next day was Sunday and the hired man did not come back. While the man who yearned to cool off waited for the return of the hired man his object was accomplished in a very thorough manner. He cooled off. The muffled door gave back but echoes to his blows, and his voice could find no place to escape and sound the alarm. When he grew tired of walking and swinging his arms to keep warm the chunks of ice that were piled around him did not offer a tempting bed. Hunger gnawed at his vitals and refused to be satisfied with diet of raw air. Darkness settled down like a six months' Arctic night, and the only sound which broke the profound stillness was the man who wanted to cool off crying to swear. The hired man opened the door on Monday morning, and the man who wanted to cool off crawled out more dead than alive. When his tongue had thawed out he began to abuse the hired man. "Fool!" retorted the hired man. "Fool, you are a lucky dog and do not know it. Don't waste time in abusing me, your benefactor, but go and write a book of impressions on Nebraska.
